Description: Introducing the Sport-Tek Ladies Dri-Mesh Pro Polo, the epitome of breathability and style for the modern woman on the go. Elevate your team spirit and brand awareness with this customizable gem that promises not only comfort but also exposure like never before.

Crafted with the finest 100% Polyester Mini Pique on the body, this polo boasts unparalleled breathability, keeping you cool and fresh all day long. The 94/6 Poly/Spandex Stretch Mesh at the raglan sleeves, back, and side panels ensures a perfect fit and added mobility, making it the most breathable polo in its class.

Designed for the active professional, this 4-ounce polo features stretch gussets that provide extra flexibility, allowing you to move with ease. The tag-free label and flat knit collar offer a seamless and comfortable wearing experience, while the 5-button placket with dyed-to-match buttons adds a touch of sophistication.

Perfect for imprinting your logo or artwork, this polo is a promotional powerhouse that guarantees exposure and recognition. However, due to the nature of 100% Polyester performance fabrics, special care must be taken during the screen printing process to ensure lasting quality.
